Appendix 1. Synopsis of The BFG (1982)

A novel by Roald Dahl entitled The BFG tells a story of an orphan girl who lives in an orphanage named Sophie. The orphanage guard is known to be fierce and likes to punish children. One night, Sophie couldn't fall asleep and then she remembered that it was witching hour. witching hour is a time when the atmosphere will be quiet and tense. Hence, children are also forbidden to wake up when witching hour arrives. However, Sophie woke up from her bed and wanted to see what was outside during witching hour. Sophie walked slowly so as not to be found out by the orphanage guards or she would be severely punished. he also saw the situation outside where it was very dark, quiet and felt tense. At that time sophie suddenly saw a big silhouette and she was scared. Sophie thought it was a giant. The giant kidnapped Sophie and took her somewhere.

After a long journey, sophie arrived at a strange place then he was brought into a cave. Sophie was put on the table by the giant, she was scared because she thought that she would be eaten by the giant. Sophie tried to talk with the giant, she talked about she was scared to be eaten by him. Then, BFG introduced himself that he was a big friendly giant he did not like to eat humans. BFG told about the food he usually ate and suggested Sophie to try the snozzcumber but she did not like it. Besides that, BFG also told that he was a dream catcher and he collected various dreams and put it inside in the dream bottles that were neatly arranged in his cave. Therefore, Sophie also felt interested and BFG invited Sophie to go to the dream country to catch some dreams.

Sophie saw another giant about to leave the giant country. BFG also told about what the giants would do. The giants are known to go to various countries to prey on humans. Sophie was shocked when she heard the story told by the BFG about the cruel behavior of the giants. Sophie had the desire to help the human from the giant's cruel act. Sophie also had a brilliant idea, the idea was to mix the bottles of dream bottles that BFG had. The dream contained a story about a giant eating humans and also there were Sophie and the BFG. The dream bottle will be given to The Queen of England because Sophie needs the queen's help to catch the giant. Sophie finally arrived at the queen's palace with the BFG, then she gave the dream bottle to the sleeping queen. Because of that, the queen also dreamed of a cruel giant and finally woke up from her sleep. Because her dream was real, The Queen was willing to help Sophie catch the cruel giants.

The capture of the giant was finally done, the giants were caught and placed in a dungeon. finally they managed to save humans who would be eaten by the giants. All people from around the world thank BFG and Sophie for saving their people from disaster. BFG and Sophie also got various prizes. The Queen also gave the BFG a big house and a small cottage for Sophie which was close to the palace.
