ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All praises are addressed to the almighty God, Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa for the strengths, blessings, and companions so that the writer could finish the study entitled "Describing Elicitation Strategies Used by English Teachers to Encourage Students to Speak in SMPN 5 Singaraja". Without his strengths, blessings, and companions, there would not be a convenient way during the process of completing this study.

Further the writer would like to address his deepest gratitude to Prof. Dra. Luh Putu Artini, M.A., Ph.D. as the first supervisor and Luh Gede Eka Wahyuni, S.Pd., M.Pd who patiently guide the writer with the meaningful feedback, motivating ideas and kindly give advice until this research is accomplished in time. The gratitude is also directed to the whole English Language Education lectures who have taught the writer from the first semester until the eighth semester with precious experience and unforgettable knowledge that the writer holds until finishing the study in time.

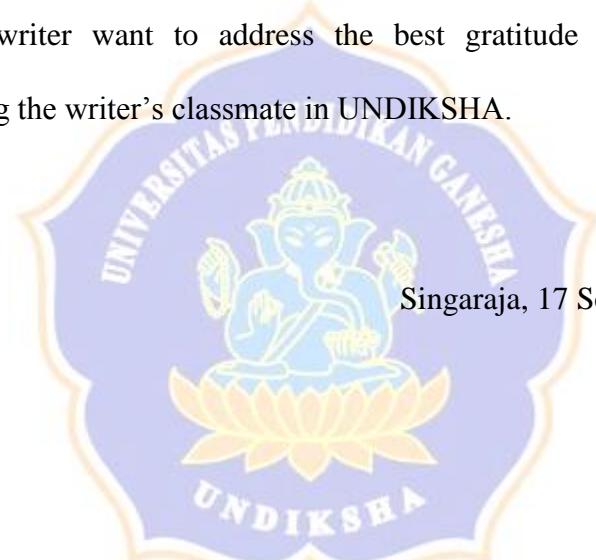

Gratefulness from the writer is expressed to Nyoman Sudiarsa, S.Pd as the headmaster of SMPN 5 Singaraja. Without his permission this study would not run well. Special thank is addressed to the seventh and eighth grade students in SMPN 5 Singaraja whose the homeroom teachers are Ms. Sutiasih and Ms. Suarningsih who have become supportive and cooperative students during the process of conducting this study.

The deepest appreciation and gratitude are addressed to the writer's family who have encouraged and given their support during the process of finishing this study. The writer could not say anything further except the greatest gratitude for the whole support from the writer's family

The writer would like to express a huge thank for the supporting system Putu Arik Pebryinatini S.Kep who always give the best advice and opinion during the process of this study.

For the last thing, the writer would like to say "thank you" for DoubleD class. The whole classmate that have been contributed in the writer's experiences for this four years. The writer want to address the best gratitude for the memorable experience of being the writer's classmate in UNDIKSHA.
