BESAKIH TEMPLE & KARANGASEM East Coast Mountain Tour

This tour takes you to Besakih Temple at the foot of Mount Agung, through rice field terraces and on to Bali's scenic East Coast. First stop is Kerta Gosa, the hall of justice, in Klungkung, which dates from the 18th century.

Your trip continues up into the mountains, stopping to admire the view from Bukit Jambul over rice terraces with the sea glistening in the distance. Then into Besakih Temple, almost 1,000m above sea level. Besakih is the "Mother Temple" of Bali and probably originated as a prehistoric sanctuary where offerings were made to the god of Mount Agung.

Back at sea level, we visit Tenganan - one of the original Bali "Aga" villages where traditions have changed little over the centuries. Our drive continues through the beach resort of Candi Dasa to Kusamba, a small fishing village, followed by Goa Lawah (Bat Cave) where the walls of the cave literally vibrate with thousands of Bats. The cave is considered to be holy, with shrines and a temple protecting its entrance.

JATILUWIH & THE BATUKARU MOUNTAIN Nature Best

A scenic drive "Off the beaten-track" with time to stop and appreciate the tranquil beauty of Bali. Your guide will enlighten you on the Balinese farming traditions, and you can get back to nature with short walks into forest, village and farmland. Once past busy Denpasar, you start to explore the unspoiled countryside and villages of the back roads. In the fertile volcanic foothills of the Batukaru Mountains you'll see an abundance of tropical fruit, spices, coffee, vegetables and flowers. It is no wonder that the community here is considered Bali's farming elite.

For the Balinese, cultivation of land is a creative art and communal effort and the jungle of Jatiluwih have created a true masterpiece - an endless and intricate jigsaw of finely-curved rice terraces in brilliant shades of green, with glittering waters so soothing to the eye. Then traunting through thick tropical forest beneath Mount Batukaru you will reach the remote Batukaru Temple. For Balinese Hindus, this site has special mystical powers.

Your first stop will take you on a 15 minutes walk (Approximately 300 meters) through scenic terraced rice fields. Cultivated in unique Balinese style, surrounding coconut trees, tropical scenery and the gentle flow of the river will introduce you to the magical Balinese culture. Your trip will be continued to Mengwi Temple, Monkey Forest and Tanah Lot. Mengwi "Taman Ayun" Temple is originally dating from 1634, this picturesque temple complex surrounded by a moat, has an elaborate stone entrance gate. It's well kept grassy courtyard boasts numerous pavilion and multi-roofed MERU shrines with intricately carved wooden gates.

Monkey Forest is a cluster of towering trees which are home to hundreds of monkeys who go about their way fearlessly in their temple haven, and hundreds of Fruit bats who sleep by day and "hunt" by night.

Your last stop is Tanah Lot, famous in Bali as the Sunset Temple. Watch the sunset behind the black towers of this sacred 16th century temple built on a black lava rock 200 metres off shore. It will be an experience to remember. Tide conditions permitting, you can walk across the beach to the temple.

BALI BEYOND

KAWAH IJEN - THE APOCALYPSE MOUNTAIN

A morning departure from your hotel in Bali winds up along the island's scenic west coast - a slice of the real Bali few tourists see. Stop for photos amid terraced rice fields, rustic villages, surging surf beaches and beautiful Bali National Park during the two and a half hour drive to Gilimanuk. Short ferry crossing to Java. Lunch is provided in a local restaurant. Afterward proceed for a city tour in the small town of Banyuwangi, beach (pedi-cab) ride visiting the Kampongs in the city, traditional market and Chinese temple. Dinner and overnight.

Early wake-up call. After breakfast drive on a four wheel drive vehicle to the slope of Mount Ijen, passing through plantations and rainforest. This is one of the few left in the island of Java with giant ferns and big trees. Pause at the Park Ranger's post before hiking further up to the slope of the crater. About one hour and half to two hours is needed to ascend the rim of the crater along a shady track with amazing views. Take a rest on the edge of the crater at 2893 meter altitude. The sulfuric lake reflects eerie color over the surrounding walls to give an apocalypse like impression. Men seeking the sulfur descend into the crater and climb back up along the dangerous rim with loads of up to 80 kilos on their shoulders. The crater observation will take at leisure. Afterwards drive back to the hotel for Lunch and in the afternoon depart to Bali.

Note:
Warm clothes are recommended in the mountain area.
The Journey is about 10 - 12 hours each way and the ferries are very basic, ask Tour East for details.

BALI BEYOND

KOMODO TOUR & RINCA TRAIL

KOMODO island is situated 200 nautical miles east of Bali between the islands of Flores and Sumbawa. Komodo Dragon is the world's largest living lizard. Indonesia declared the area a National Park in 1980, and in 1982 Komodo was declared a World Heritage Site.

Depart to Labuan Bajo from Ngurah Rai Airport of Denpasar. Upon arrival at Komodo Airport of Labuan Bajo, you will be met and transferred to the harbor to board the boat to Rinca Island. Track through typical dry forest on Rinca island. The mix vegetation of Komodo National Park provides habitat and shade for different animals on the park. Deer, buffaloes, pigs, wild boar, long tail-macaque feed on various leaves, fruit, flowers, roots and grasses found in the park. Komodo dragon - scientifically described in 1912 as Varanus komodoensis - the largest monitor lizard in the world. They are top predator and all animals in the park are potential prey of Komodo dragons. A park ranger will lead the track. Afternoon cruise back to Labuan Bajo. There is opportunity for swimming or snorkeling at Bidari Island. Lunch, dinner and overnight onboard.

After breakfast, you will be transferred direct to airport for the flight to Denpasar.

BALI BEYOND

BOROBUDUR TEMPLE & YOGYAKARTA

Transfer from your hotel to Denpasar airport for a flight to Jogjakarta where you will be met by our guide for your sightseeing tour.

Experience the constant bustle of Javanese life as you head for Borobudur Temple approximately 90 minutes' drive to the north of City of Jogjakarta. Dating from the 8th century, this huge Buddhist Temple consists of six concentric outer terraces and three circular terraces above them. Its walls are sculptured in bas relief extending over 6kms in length. With its lush mountain backdrop this must surely rank among the world's most impressive sites. A visit is also included to the 9th century Hindu temple complex at Prambanan. Largely in ruins yet still with fine contours and intricate stone carvings. Return to airport or overnight at hotel. After breakfast an additional tour of the artistic city of Jogjakarta. Visit the Sultan's Palace, seat of Java's most powerful royal family (closed on Monday), a factory producing Java's finest batik and a centre where the famous Wayang Kulit leather puppets are painstakingly crafted by hand. Transfer back to the airport for your return flight to Bali.

LOMBOK ISLAND

Spend a day on the small island of Lombok, often described as the 'Bali of Yesterday'. Lying to the east of its better known neighbour, it offers tranquil beaches, upspit villages and tropical countryside, and an intriguing Muslim-based Sasak Culture.

Upon arrival to the island you will be met by your guide and taken on a tour of Lombok. See traditional weaving, handmade pottery and native Sasak villages where unusually shaped thatched houses stand on wooden stilts. In the south you'll find the beautiful white sands of Kuta Beach, fringed by lush vegetation. Last stop is Narmada Summer Palace, built in 1727 by an old Balinese King.

You will be taken to the airport / hotel at the end of your tour.
