ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Gratitude to God Almighty for his blessings, the author can complete this thesis entitled “THE REPRESENTATION OF RADICAL-CULTURAL FEMINISM IN THE CHARACTERS OF MRS. WORMWOOD IN ROALD DAHL'S MATILDA (1988).” This thesis is prepared in order to fulfil the requirements in completing a bachelor's degree in higher education. In the process of writing this thesis, of course, the author faced various challenges that were not easy, new insights in feminist research, and valuable experiences throughout the process to finish until the end, even with all the limitations possessed by the author, this thesis could be completed thanks to the support, guidance, and learning from various parties. Therefore, the author realises the importance of expressing gratitude to all those who have been involved and contributed to this research. On this occasion, the author would like to express her gratitude to:

1. Prof. Dr. Ni Komang Arie Suwastini, S.Pd., M. Hum as the first supervisor who has been pleased to guide the author from the beginning of starting to write a thesis until completing this thesis. 3. My sincere gratitude goes to my mother and father. Especially my mother Kadek Suardi, who is always there in every moment, both pleasant and sad. Thanks to my mother, the author does not give up and always has hope for the future and is also the first child in a big family who can go to college and get a bachelor's degree.
4. Huge thanks to I Gusti Ayu Sandra Hardiyanti as an sister, best friend, and fairy godmother who always accompanies the author, listening to all problems both joy and sorrow. The author would like to appreciate Sandra for always helping the author in the process of completing the thesis.
