ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Praise be to Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa for His endless grace, strength, and blessings that have enabled the author to complete this thesis entitled “Hindi Swear Words Used by Indians: A Descriptive Qualitative Study”. This thesis has been written as part of the academic requirements for college education. The journey of writing this thesis has been both challenging and rewarding. The author faced various obstacles throughout the process, such as time limitations, academic responsibilities, and the complexity of the subject matter. Nevertheless, the thesis was completed thanks to the invaluable guidance, persistent encouragement, and heartfelt prayers from many individuals. The author would like to express deep and sincere gratitude to all those who supported and assisted in the completion of this research. Whether through direct contributions or indirect support, each effort played a significant role in making this thesis possible.

On this occasion, the author would like to express heartfelt respect and appreciation to:

1. Prof. Dr. I Gede Budasi, M.Ed., as the first thesis advisor, who patiently and thoroughly provided valuable academic guidance. He not only guided the writer through the research process but also continuously shared deep insights, constructive feedback, and uplifting motivation.
2. Dr. Dewa Putu Ramendra, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the second thesis advisor, who gave thoughtful direction and highly valuable input at every stage of this research. His patience and support have been a great source of strength for the writer in facing challenges during the research and writing process.

3. Putu Eka Dambayana S., S.Pd., M.P.d., as the academic advisor, who has guided and supported the writer throughout this academic journey.

4. All lecturers of the English Education Study Program, who have dedicated themselves to sharing knowledge and insights during the writer's college years. Their teaching went beyond classroom theory—it became an inspiration and learning experience that shaped the writer's way of thinking and helped expand both academic and professional perspectives.

5. Ashish, Kasturi, and Sahil, as informants in this study, for their honesty, time, and openness in sharing their insights, which were crucial to the development of this research.

6. The author's beloved parents, I Gede Rai and Wayan Luh Ayuningsih for their unconditional love, endless support, and sincere prayers. Their sacrifices and constant encouragement have been the strongest motivation throughout this academic journey.

7. The extended family— brothers: Bayu Adiguna and Agung Wibawa, grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins, for their affection, encouragement, and presence, which brought emotional strength and joy during stressful times.

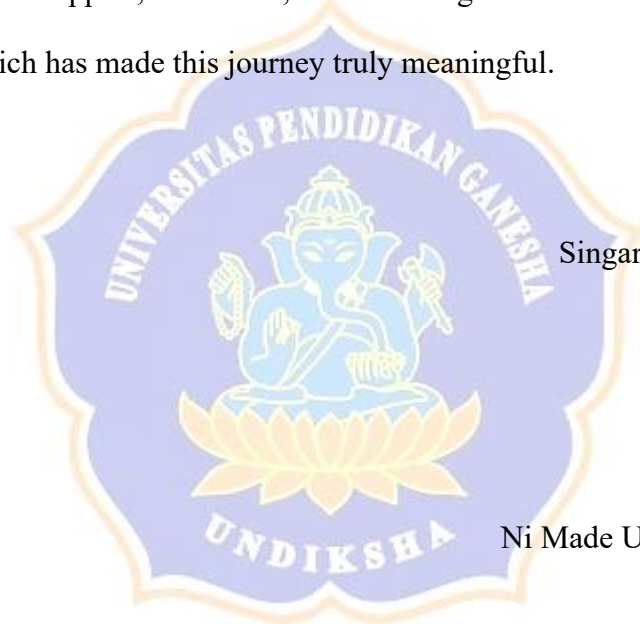

8. Closest Friends and classmates, for their companionship, helpful discussions, and shared experiences that made the academic journey more meaningful.

9. To myself, for staying committed despite difficulties, for being resilient in the face of pressure, and for continuously striving toward completion. The perseverance and effort poured into this work are recognized with gratitude and humility.

10. My favorite movies 3 Idiots and PK, for providing not only entertainment but also powerful messages about education, life, and open-mindedness serve as unexpected yet meaningful sources of motivation during difficult moments.

11. All other individuals who, directly or indirectly, contributed to the completion of this thesis, your kindness and support will always be appreciated.

May this work offer valuable insights and serve as a small but meaningful contribution to future research in this field. The author deeply appreciates and acknowledges the support, assistance, and encouragement received from all these individuals, which has made this journey truly meaningful.
