ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With profound gratitude, I offer praise and thanks to Sang Tiratana, God Almighty, for all the blessings, grace, and strength I was able to complete this thesis, entitled "The Effect of a Flipped Classroom with YouTube Integration Towards Students' Listening Skill in SMAN 1 Seririt," to the best of my ability. The journey of writing this thesis was not easy; it was fraught with struggle, uncertainty, tiredness, and even doubt. However, through it all, I never truly walked alone. Many hearts were present, providing me with encouragement, guidance, and love; all of them gave me strength in this process. Therefore, with the utmost humility and gratitude, allow me to express my appreciation to the following parties:

1. Putu Eka Dambayana S., S.Pd., M.Pd. my first supervisor, who tirelessly guided me, provided input, and encouraged me to think more critically and thoroughly. Thank you for your patience and dedication in guiding me through the completion of this thesis.
2. Luh Gd Rahayu Budiarta, S.Pd., M.Pd. my second supervisor, who, with her gentle yet firm determination, always ensured that every part of this thesis was meaningful and high-quality. Thank you for your attention and invaluable suggestions.
3. Gede Mahendrayana, S.Pd., M.Pd. as my Academic Advisor, who has guided me since the beginning of my studies, is always ready to help and be a place to ask questions in times of confusion.
4. All the lecturers and staff at the Faculty of English Language Education, Ganesha University of Education, who have been a part of my academic growth. Every lesson, guidance, and experience during my studies has been a valuable asset for my future journey.

6. The wonderful students of grades XI 3 and XI 4 of SMAN 1 Seririt who have agreed to participate in this research. I truly appreciate your enthusiasm and cooperation. Thank you for being part of this journey.
7. To my beloved father and mother, Ketut Suarsana and Ketut Sumariani, two extraordinary figures who have been the light in my life, even though life has entrusted you to the world without sight. Despite all the limitations of being blind, you never gave up on giving complete love, sincere prayers, and countless sacrifices for my future. Your strength comes not from what can be seen, but from the determination, patience, and unconditional love that I have always felt since childhood. You raised me with love and hope, teaching me the meaning of true struggle without having to say much. My steps this far are not only due to my hard work, but also because of the strength you instilled in me, which I will always carry wherever I go.

8. To my beloved siblings, Metria, Pita, and Anatta, you are a reminder that home isn't always about a place, but about the people who bring peace to my heart. Thank you for your laughter and love.
9. To someone who means a lot to me I Kadek Darmada a.k.a Dek Egler, thank you for being the warmest part of this journey. since the beginning of this thesis, you have always been there, supporting me through every difficult step. Thank you for always knowing what to say when the world feels too quiet, for always being there not only with help and attention, but also with a completely sincere heart. Without saying much, you are a place to come home that makes me feel enough, feel strong, and feel loved.
10. To my best friends, Refi, Lian, Sasa, Cindy, Meriyanti, Dewi, and Buana Santi, thank you for always being there. You've made everything feel lighter and more fun. Thank you for always supporting me and helping a lot with this thesis. Your support means a lot to me.
11. And finally, to myself, thank you for sticking it out this far. Thank you for continuing to try, even though you often felt tired, confused, and wanted to give up. Thank you for keeping moving forward. I'm proud of you for not giving up, for choosing to keep going even though everything felt hard. You've done your best, and that's enough.
