Questionnaire on Teacher Support, Academic Self-Efficacy and Commitment to Learning

Dear student:

Greetings! Thank you for taking part in this questionnaire. I am a current Master's student writing a Master's thesis on the relationship between teacher support, academic self-efficacy and student learning engagement, and I am conducting this survey to find out more about my students' learning at school. Your answers will be a valuable part of my research! Please read the questions carefully and answer them as you see fit. The questionnaire is not anonymous and there is no right or wrong answer, so please feel free to answer! There is no time limit for answering the questions, so please consider them carefully, but don't spend too much time on each question and answer them based on your first impressions. You only need to tick the answer that best suits you. To save you the trouble of having to fill in the form again, please make sure you check your answers when you have finished and don't miss any questions.

I wish you success in your studies and a happy growth!
