ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The completion of this thesis would not have been possible without the support of others. First and foremost, I express my gratitude to God Almighty for all the grace and strength, enabling me to complete this thesis. This thesis was written to fulfill the requirements for a bachelor's degree in the English Language Education study program, Department of Foreign Languages, Faculty of Languages and Arts. The completion of this thesis would not have been possible without the support, guidance, and assistance of various parties. Therefore, I would like to express my gratitude to:

1. My first supervisor, Prof. Dr. Ni Komang Arie Suwastini, S.Pd., M.Hum., and my second supervisor, Ni Nyoman Artini, M.Pd. I extend my highest gratitude and respect to them for their extraordinary encouragement and guidance, which have enabled me to complete this work.
2. All the English Language Education lecturers for their valuable knowledge, experience, advice, suggestions, and motivation.
3. The researchers whose research was used in this study.
4. My mother, father, and two younger brothers for always supporting and listening to my concerns throughout the course of my thesis.
5. My best friends, Tasya and Putri, who has always supported me and been there for me through thick and thin.
6. Cortis, who has created songs that have kept me motivated while working on my thesis.
7. Lastly, I want to thank myself for staying strong and doing all this hard work despite the many obstacles.

The writer realizes that this thesis is far from perfect. Therefore, constructive criticism and suggestions are highly appreciated for its improvement.
