ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my gratitude to Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa for the blessing, guidance, and strength so that I could finish this thesis. This thesis was written as one of the requirements to get a bachelor's degree in the English Language Education Study Program, Department of Foreign Languages, Faculty of Languages and Arts. I realize that I could not finish this thesis without the help, support, guidance, and encouragement from many people. Therefore, I would like to give my sincere thanks to:

1. My first supervisor, Prof. Dr. Ni Komang Arie Suwastini, S.Pd., M.Hum., who has given guidance, advice, patience, and support during the process of writing this thesis.
2. My second supervisor, Dewa Ayu Eka Agustini, S.Pd., M.S., for the guidance, corrections, and encouragement that helped me improve this thesis and finish it well.
3. My beloved parents, for their endless love, prayers, and support, both financially and emotionally, throughout my study.
4. My colleague in this research topic, Liyan Arthati, for discussions, motivation, sharing ideas, and supporting each other through the hardships we faced during the process of completing this thesis.
5. My dearest classmates, Dina and Devi, who always listened to my stories and supported me through the ups and downs of my college life.
6. Lastly, I would like to thank myself for staying strong, trying my best, and not giving up during this journey. Thank you for surviving all the challenges and continuing until this thesis was finally completed.

I realize that this thesis is still not perfect. Therefore, I would gladly accept suggestions and constructive criticism to make this thesis better. I hope this thesis can be useful for the readers and future researchers.
