ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

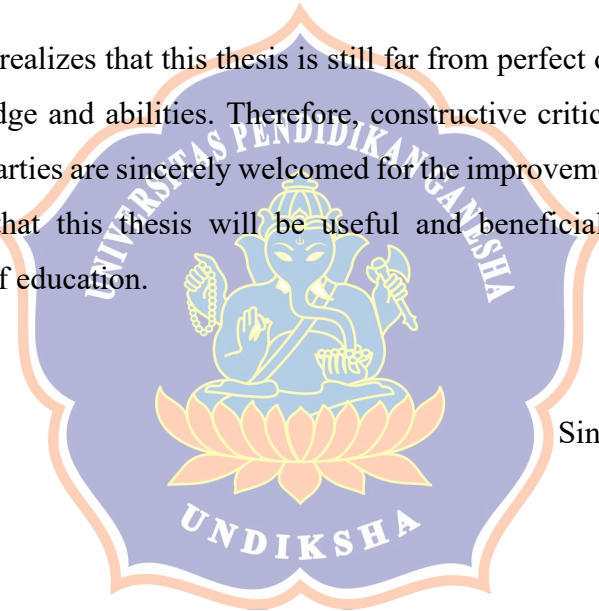

Praise be to Lord Jesus Christ for His abundant grace and blessings that have enabled the writer to finally complete this research paper as one of the requirements for obtaining a Bachelor's Degree in English Language Education at Universitas Pendidikan Ganesha, Singaraja, Bali. The writer is also deeply grateful to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Stella Maris, for her loving intercession and guidance throughout the process of completing this study. The writer has successfully finished the thesis entitled “Learning English as a Foreign Language in Elementary Schools: The Perspectives of Students Who Are Potentially Dyslexic.” Furthermore, the writer would also like to express sincere gratitude to many people who have contributed to the completion of this research paper. The writer's deepest appreciation and heartfelt thanks are addressed to those who have provided great motivation, support, insightful criticism, and valuable suggestions during the accomplishment of this research paper:

1. Prof. Dra. Luh Putu Artini, M.A., Ph.D. as the first supervisor who has provided a lot of knowledge, guidance, support, advice, ideas, and suggestions in completing this thesis.
2. I Ketut Trika Adi Ana, S.Pd., M.Pd. as the second supervisor who patiently provides guidance, knowledge, advice and input in completing this thesis.
3. The Principal of SDN 1 Kaliuntu and SDN 1 Kampung Anyar, English teacher, and all students of SDN 1 Kaliuntu and SDN 1 Kampung Anyar who helped the writer during the data collection process.
4. For the writer's beloved family, especially the writer's father, Thomson Parasian Silitonga; the writer's siblings, Ayu and Yosia; and the writer's cousin, De Arya, who have provided endless love, financial assistance, encouragement, and emotional support throughout the writer's academic journey.
5. For the writer's beloved KRIS10 squad, especially Cef and Dep, who have accompanied the writer through many moments of university life, sharing support, stories, and discussions until the completion of this thesis. The writer also expresses sincere gratitude to Mew for her care and understanding, and for being a sister in Christ to the writer. The writer is also thankful to a childhood friend, Lunar Wolf, who has always encouraged, accompanied her from afar, and cheered her up during difficult times. The writer also extends gratitude to other friends who cannot be mentioned one by one for their support along the way. The writer also expresses heartfelt gratitude to those who were once part of her journey and whose presence, in one way or another, has shaped the path she walks today, even though their paths may now lead in different directions.

6. Lastly, the writer would like to express sincere appreciation to herself for remaining strong and continuing this journey despite the moments of doubt, exhaustion, and the temptation to give up along the way. This achievement stands as a reminder that perseverance, faith, and courage can carry the writer through even the most challenging times.

The writer realizes that this thesis is still far from perfect due to the limitations of her knowledge and abilities. Therefore, constructive criticism and suggestions from various parties are sincerely welcomed for the improvement of this thesis. The writer hopes that this thesis will be useful and beneficial, especially for the development of education.
