ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praise and gratitude are due to Ide Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa, who has granted me the strength, perseverance, and wisdom to complete this thesis entitled <Investigating the Multicultural Values and Peacebuilding: Best Practices in Dyatmika Primary School> as a requirement for obtaining my master's degree. This journey has been challenging and rewarding, and it would be impossible without the guidance, encouragement, and support for individuals to whom I am deeply grateful.

First and foremost, my deepest appreciation goes to Prof. Dr. Ni Nyoman Padmadewi, M.A., my academic advisor and primary thesis supervisor. Her expertise, consistent guidance, and extensive knowledge have been a great support throughout my research process. Her patience, critical insight, and encouragement have shaped my academic journey, and I am truly honored to have been mentored by her.

To Prof. Dr. Putu Kerti Nitiasih, M.A., I would like to express my sincere gratitude for her thoughtful attention to detail, insightful discussion and valuable feedback that have helped me refine my research. Thank you also for inspiring me to preserve this process.

I would also like to express my gratitude to the examiners, Prof. Dr. Ni Luh Putu Sri Adnyani, S.Pd., M.Hum., Dr. A.A. Ngurah Yudha Martin Mahardika, S. Pd., M. Pd., and Prof. Dra. Luh Putu Artini., M.A., Ph.D., for their constructive feedback and suggestions, which significantly contributed to improving the quality of this work. Their critical insight and insightful analysis were invaluable in refining my research.

Lastly, my deepest gratitude goes to my dad, my mom, my brothers, my big family, my beloved friends XOXO and my special man in my heart, who have always given me their unwavering support, patience, and prayers that have been my greatest source of strength. Their endless support and belief in my abilities have been the biggest motivators in completing this thesis.

May this work contribute to the field of language education and serve as a useful reference for future research. I humbly acknowledge that this thesis is not without its limitations, and I would welcome any constructive feedback on further improvements.
