ACKNOWLEDGMENT

First and foremost, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the Almighty God, Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa, for His endless blessings, grace, strength, and guidance throughout my academic journey. Without His divine presence, this thesis entitled “The Relationship Between Gender and Self-Efficacy on Students’ Use of AI-Based Applications in English Grammar Course” would never have been completed successfully.

The completion of this thesis would not have been possible without the invaluable support, encouragement, and assistance from many wonderful individuals. Therefore, I would like to sincerely express my heartfelt appreciation to:

1. Prof. Dr. Ni Made Ratminingsih, M.A., as my first supervisor, for her exceptional guidance, endless patience, insightful suggestions, and unwavering support throughout every stage of this research. Her wisdom, dedication, and encouragement inspired me to continuously improve and complete this thesis with confidence.
2. Made Hery Santosa, S.Pd., M.Pd., Ph.D., as my second supervisor, for his thoughtful feedback, constructive advice, and continuous motivation during the completion of this thesis.
3. Luh Gd Rahayu Budiarta, S.Pd., M.Pd. & Luh Putu Dian Kresnawati, S.Pd., M.Pd. as my honorable examiners, for their valuable evaluations, constructive critiques, and meaningful suggestions that helped refine and improve the quality of this thesis.
4. All students of the English Language Education Study Program who participated as the subjects and respondents of this study, for their willingness. Their valuable contribution played an important role in the completion of this thesis.
5. All lecturers and academic staff of the English Language Education Study Program for the knowledge, experiences, and support given throughout my years of study.

6. My beloved parents, Ni Ketut Widianari and I Ketut Mawi, for their endless love, sincere prayers, sacrifices, and unconditional support in every step of my life.
7. My beloved siblings, Patu Agus Pratama Pradnyana and Komang Pratista Bagus Apriadnyana, for their constant encouragement.
8. My beloved partner, Dimas Bagus Prayoga, for being my greatest emotional support system throughout this journey.
9. The unforgettable friends who became an important part of my academic journey: Yunita, Ayu Sepvina, Carmiani, Made Mirah, and Tupon. Thank you for the countless memories, support, laughter, and companionship throughout this journey.
10. My classmates, for the endless memories, laughter, support, and togetherness throughout this academic journey.

Finally, I realize that this thesis is still far from perfect. Therefore, constructive criticisms and suggestions are sincerely welcomed for the improvement of this study. I truly hope that this research will provide meaningful contributions to the field of education, particularly in understanding students' self-efficacy and the use of AI-based applications in English grammar learning.
