ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I raise my hands in deepest gratitude to Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa, the Almighty God, for His endless blessings, guidance, and inner strength. Without His grace, the completion of this thesis, titled “The Implementation of Task-Based Digital Storytelling to Enhance Students' Speaking Competency in SD Negeri 3 Banjar Jawa,” would not have been possible.

My journey through this research has been shaped, supported, and uplifted by so many remarkable people. From the bottom of my heart, I wish to thank:

Prof. Dr. Ni Made Ratminingsih, M.A., my first supervisor, whose wisdom, patience, and gentle guidance have been a lighthouse throughout this process. Thank you for believing in my ideas, for correcting me with kindness, and for teaching me what true academic dedication looks like.

Luh Gede Eka Wahyuni, S.Pd., M.Pd., my second supervisor, for your meticulous attention, encouraging words, and the countless hours you spent reviewing my work. Your feedback didn't just improve this thesis it helped me grow as a researcher and a writer.

To all my lecturers in the English Language Education Department, thank you for planting the seeds of knowledge, curiosity, and passion over these past years. You have given me not only lessons, but inspiration.

My warmest thanks to the family of SD Negeri 3 Banjar Jawa the principal, teachers, and especially the bright-eyed sixth-grade students who welcomed me into their classroom. Your smiles, courage to speak, and genuine excitement during our storytelling sessions reminded me daily of why this work matters.

To my beloved parents, Nengah Dauh Aryawan and Ni Made Sri Ratmini Dewi—I owe you everything. Your sacrifices, your quiet strength, your unconditional love have been the foundation of my life and my studies. Every word in this thesis carries your prayer and hope for me. I hope I have made you proud.

To my brother, I Putu Bayu P. Hendra Yasa, thank you for always having my back, for the pep talks, and for reminding me to laugh even on stressful days.

To my supportive friends I met on the college, Andin, Angelina, Diagung, Bagas, Raja, Kaesya, Fadil, Radit, and Rafli. Thank you for the unlimited support and endless patients for answering every question I have; you made this journey feel less lonely and far more meaningful.

To the ones that knows me best, Ira, Khay and Widya(ucup). Thank you for always looking after me, have my back and be my emergency contact when I need companion the most. Thank you for being my support system, my ride or die and my cheerleaders. I owe you a lot.

And finally, I would like to acknowledge my own perseverance throughout this journey. Completing this thesis required patience, resilience, and the willingness to continue moving forward even when the path felt uncertain. This work stands not only as an academic requirement, but also as a personal reflection of growth, faith, and the determination to keep going.

I sincerely hope this research can bring a little light to the world of language teaching, and perhaps inspire more joyful, confident voices in classrooms to come. I humbly welcome any feedback that may help this work grow.
