ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

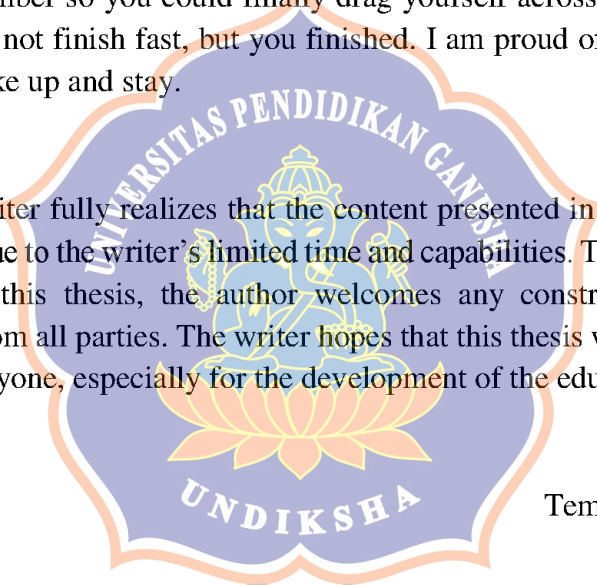

All praises and gratitude be to Ida Sang Hyang Widhi Wasa, for by His grace, the author has been able to complete a thesis entitled “Project-Based Learning Integrated with Technology: Classroom Implementation and Students’ Perceptions in Vocational Hospitality English Classes”. This thesis is prepared to fulfill the requirements for obtaining a bachelor’s degree in education at Universitas Pendidikan Ganesha.

The completion of this thesis is the culmination of an arduous journey, fraught with anxiety and tense moments near the absolute deadline of my study period, when the shadow of failure felt imminent over the past month. Throughout the demanding process of completing this final project, the writer received invaluable assistance, guidance, both moral and material encouragement from various individuals. Therefore, the author wishes to express the deepest gratitude to:

1. Putu Adi Krisna Juniarta, S.Pd., M.Pd. as the first supervisor who became my primary mentor and savior, guiding me away from the brink of academic dismissal. With profound patience, wisdom, and sincerity, he generously dedicates his time to mentor, direct, and facilitate writer’s progress, enabling graduation within the allotted time. The writer expresses the deepest gratitude for such invaluable assistance and unwavering dedication, which have been pivotal to the writer’s future.
2. Dewa Ayu Eka Agustini, S.Pd., M.S. as the second supervisor for providing invaluable guidance and exceptional patience in assisting the author to complete this thesis right at the absolute deadline of the study period. The author expresses the deepest gratitude for all the support and assistance rendered.
3. Made Hery Santosa, S.Pd., M.Pd., Ph.D. & Luh Gd Rahayu Budiarta, S.Pd., M.Pd. as my examiner for their exceptional kindness, constructive feedback, and remarkable leniency extended to the author. Their willingness to dedicate time during critical circumstances and assist the writer in completing this final stage of study has been of profound significance to the writer's graduation.
4. I Nyoman Suastika & Wayan Rai Trisna Wati as my parents and Putu Arie Purnama Putra as my siblings, who serve as the ultimate reason the author was able to complete this thesis. Infinite gratitude is expressed for their ceaseless prayers, extraordinary moral support, material sacrifices, and boundless patience in funding the author's studies until the very final moments. The successful completion of this thesis is a tangible manifestation of their immense love, patience, and remarkable struggle.

5. Renaldi Bagus Antoro as my special beloved partner, who resides afar, for your infinite patience in listening to all grievances, accompanying me through the struggles amidst exhaustion, and never tiring of sending prayers and encouragement from afar. Your presence has been one of the greatest reasons the writer was able to endure and refuse to give up during the most critical moments of completing this study.
6. Myamya as my dearest beloved cat, who has faithfully accompanied me for hours beside the study desk, serving as the most effective stress reliever through adorable antics, and always being there to comfort the author when nearing burnout in the final semester.
7. Finally, special gratitude to myself, Made Dina Martini Putri. To the version of me who once lost the way, came close to giving up, and spent countless nights drowning in guilt. Thank you for holding on despite nearly losing hope, and for choosing to wake up from that long academic slumber so you could finally drag yourself across this finish line. You did not finish fast, but you finished. I am proud of you for choosing to wake up and stay.

The writer fully realizes that the content presented in this thesis is still far from perfect due to the writer's limited time and capabilities. Therefore, for the sake of improving this thesis, the author welcomes any constructive criticism and suggestions from all parties. The writer hopes that this thesis will be beneficial and useful for everyone, especially for the development of the educational world.
