ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, the researcher would like to express her deepest gratitude to Allah SWT for His blessings, guidance, strength, and countless opportunities throughout the process of completing this thesis. Without His mercy and guidance, this thesis would not have been completed.

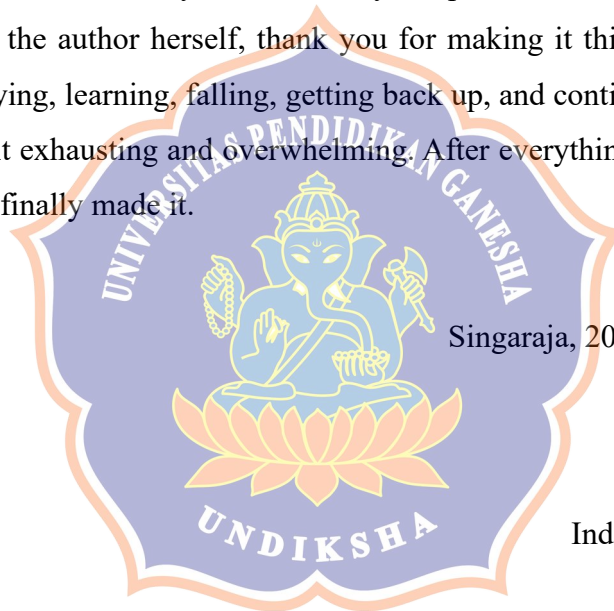

1. The author would like to express her deepest respect and gratitude to the leadership of Universitas Pendidikan Ganesha for the opportunities, guidance, support, and facilities provided throughout her academic journey. The author would like to extend her sincere gratitude to Prof. Dr. I Wayan Lasmawan, M.Pd., as the Rector of Universitas Pendidikan Ganesha; Drs. I Gede Nurjaya, M.Pd., as the Dean of the Faculty of Languages and Arts; Dr. Ni Putu Era Marsakawati, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the Head of the Foreign Language Department; A.A. Gede Yudha Paramarta, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the Secretary of the Foreign Language Department; Dr. I.G.A. Lokita Purnamika Utami, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the Coordinator of the English Language Education Study Program; and Prof. Dr. I Gede Budasi, M.Ed. as the Academic Supervisor. The author also expresses her sincere gratitude to all lecturers of the Faculty of Languages and Arts, especially the lecturers of the English Language Education Study Program, for the knowledge, lessons, experiences, guidance, and support provided throughout her years of study. Every lesson and experience has become an important part of the author's academic journey and personal growth.
2. To the thesis supervisors, Prof. Dr. Putu Kerti Nitiasih, M.A. and Ms. Ni Wayan Monik Rismadewi, S.Pd., M.Pd., the author would like to express sincere gratitude for their time, patience, guidance, corrections, suggestions, and encouragement throughout the process of completing this thesis. Their continuous guidance throughout every revision and valuable feedback have greatly contributed to the improvement of this work and helped the author reach the end of this academic journey.
3. The author is deeply grateful to Dr. Ni Luh Putu Eka Sulistia Dewi, S.Pd., M.Pd. and Dewa Ayu Eka Agustini, S.Pd., M.S., for serving as examiners and providing valuable input during the examination and revision process. Their insightful feedback, constructive criticism, and thoughtful suggestions were greatly helpful in refining and strengthening this thesis.

4. To the author's beloved parents and brother, the author would like to express her deepest gratitude for their endless love, prayers, patience, sacrifices, and unconditional support throughout her academic journey. Their presence, encouragement, and belief in the author have been an important source of strength, especially during the most challenging moments of completing this thesis.
5. To Ms. Kadek Samiyanti, S.Pd., and the students of Class B1 at TK Lab Undiksha, the author would like to express her sincere gratitude for their kindness, cooperation, support, and participation throughout the research process. The author is grateful for the opportunity to conduct the research and for the meaningful experiences and memories created during the implementation of the study.
6. To Muhammad Ehab Khafagee, the author would like to express her special gratitude for being one of the warmest parts of this journey. His voice accompanied the author through countless moments during the process of completing this thesis, while his words became a companion and a source of encouragement whenever the author needed strength to keep going.
7. To the author's dearest friends, Nabila, Eka, Ayu Sri, Anindya, Della, and Desira, the author would like to express her sincere gratitude for all the laughter, support, conversations, help, and unforgettable memories throughout her university journey. Their presence made the author's university life more meaningful and colorful and became an important part of a chapter that the author will always remember.
8. To author colleagues on the umbrella research, thank you very much, especially to Anti author's thesis-mates, and the friends of Fantastical class and AM SKENDERT 2025, thank you for the friendship, laughter, and unforgettable memories throughout the journey.
9. To Ana Ayu and Veronica, the author's first friends at university, thank you for being there from the beginning and for making the early days of university life more memorable. The author is truly grateful for the friendship and memories we have shared.

10. To Levy, the author's best friend since junior high school, thank you for your friendship, support, and for always being there throughout the years. Your presence has always been a meaningful part of the author's life.
11. To Adinda, the author's best friend since senior high school, thank you for the friendship, support, and countless memories we have shared throughout the years. The author is truly grateful to have you as part of her life.
12. To Shofi, the author's best friend since elementary school, thank you for being part of the author's life since childhood. The friendship, laughter, and memories we have shared over the years will always be precious to the author.
13. Finally, to the author herself, thank you for making it this far. Thank you for staying, trying, learning, falling, getting back up, and continuing even when the process felt exhausting and overwhelming. After everything that has happened, the author finally made it.
