

Appendix 1. Synopsis of The Lion, The Witch, and The Wardrobe

The story begins when Lucy Pevensie and her three siblings named Peter Pevensie, Susan Pevensie, and Edmund Pevensie were moved to the Professor's house in the heart of their country. They moved there because of the air raids in London. The Professor's house was very big. In that big house, Lucy and her three siblings were exploring the rooms one by one. When they came to the spare, Lucy found a big wardrobe there. Peter did not interest in the wardrobe, so he asked her siblings to move to another room. Lucy still in the spare room because she wondering about the wardrobe. Then, she entered the wardrobe alone until she arrived in a world named Narnia. She met with a nice faun named Mr. Tumnus and they became a friend. When Lucy turned to the house again, she told her siblings about Narnia and Mr. Tumnus. However, they did not believe her because there was no proof.

The next day, Edmund also got into Narnia after following Lucy quietly. He met with a White Witch and he told her about Lucy and Mr. Tumnus. The White Witch gave Edmund Turkish Delight and promise him to become a Prince of Narnia if he could bring her siblings to her. After Edmund finishing his talk to the Witch, he met with Lucy there. They turned to the house together and Lucy tried to tell Peter and Susan about Narnia again. However, they still did not believe the existence of Narnia because Edmund told them that they only play pretending to make a story about Narnia. Lucy's effort in telling the Narnia was not useless when Peter, Susan, and Edmund entered the world of Narnia with her. Lucy invited her siblings to visit Mr. Tumnus' cave, but the cave was destructed and there was no Mr. Tumnus. Lucy and her siblings went to Mr. Beaver's cave to find out the way of helping Mr. Tumnus.

After they had their dinner, Edmund suddenly has gone from the cave quietly. He went to the White Witch's house to look for Turkish delight. However, he did not get the Turkish delight and the Witch was very angry because he did not bring his siblings. To reduce the Witch's angry, he told her siblings' residence and he also told their plan in looking for Aslan. Then, the Witch sent her wolves to go to Mr. Beaver's cave and killed everyone in that cave. However, Lucy and the other saved because they left the cave on time. Lucy, Peter, and Susan walked to Aslan's residence guided by Mr. Beaver and Mrs. Beaver. They did a very long journey on walking. In the middle of their journey, they met Father Christmas. Father Christmas gave all of them a gift. Then, they continue their journey. When they arrived in Aslan's residence in the Stone Table, they talked to Aslan.

Peter told everything about Edmund and Lucy asked Aslan's help. Aslan commanded his troops to save Edmund by following the wolf that manages to escape after attacked Susan and Lucy. When Edmund was succeeded to be saved, the Witch came to the Pavilion to ask Edmund to be killed in the Stone Table because she considered Edmund as a traitor. Aslan has sacrificed himself to Edmund. He would replace Edmund's position and killed by the Witch. At night, Aslan instructed all creatures and also the Pevensie siblings to move to the Beruna. They built the Pavilion there. When Aslan left the Beruna alone, he followed by Lucy and Susan who could not sleep because thought about Aslan. Lucy and Susan accompanied Aslan's journey to the Stone Table. Aslan was killed by the Witch and her slaves in the Stone Table. Lucy and Susan watched him from the bushes.

Aslan's death made Lucy and Susan sad and hopeless. However, because of the deep magic of the Stone Table, Aslan turned alive. Lucy and Susan were very happy and they all went to the Witch's house for rescue mission. All of statues in the Witch's house changed become alive again because of Aslan's blow. Lucy also found Mr. Tumnus statue inside the house and he blew by Aslan's power. All of creatures were followed Aslan, Lucy, and Susan to the war to defeat the White Witch. In a war, Lucy saw her brother, Peter was fighting with the Witch. Then, Aslan killed the Witch until all of her slaves disappeared. Lucy saw Edmund got a serious injured after he fighting with the Witch. Lucy tried to heal him by using a cordial of fire flowers that given by Father Christmas. Narnia was turned to peace again and the Pevensie siblings were crowned as Kings and Queens of Narnia.

The Pevensie siblings stayed in Narnia for long time until they grew to become adults. They joined a White Stag's hunt in the forest. Lucy and her three siblings were hunted the White Stag by riding horses. When they lose the White Stag in the thicket, Lucy found a lamp post there. She familiar with the lamp post and she believed that if they walked to the thicket that lead to the lamp post, they would find a strange adventure. Then, her three siblings agreed to Lucy's opinion, so they started to enter the thicket and left their horses. At the first, they walked through branches of the trees, but a moment later they walked through the coats. Finally, they turned to the Professor's house again and they did not adults anymore, but children.
