Appendix 1. Nicholas Spark's Dear John (2006) Synopsis

The story begins with the prolog about John Tyree's life. He took the duties as an army and sacrificing himself for others despite the pain and injury that he was experiencing. John Tyree sacrifices his life as an army until he is willing to be shot by the enemy to defend his country. His life cannot separate from the coin. Coin is the thing that he always remembers because it is valuable in his life. His family was the coin collector but John Tyree not too much interesting in the coin. He only brings one coin that valuable in his life in order to make himself always remember with his father. In his life, John Tyree only loved with one girl, namely Savannah Lynn Curtis. He is willing to sacrifice the girl that he loved happy with another man in order to make her happy in her life. He was willing to sacrifice everything for everyone that he loved although he cannot live with her.

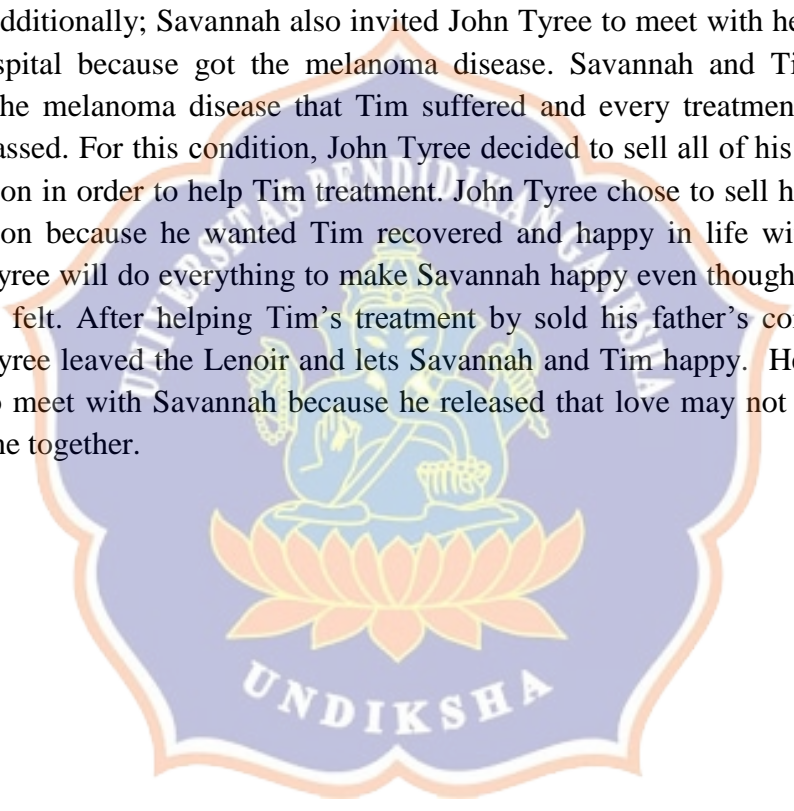

On July 2001, John Tyree came back to the Wilmington for the holiday while visited his father. John is an American Army that spent his holidays in Wilmington. He was a man who originally come from Wilmington but worked outside of the city as army. John only back home and visited her father when the holidays come. John only stayed with his father who likes to collect the coins and lonely. He is the only son of his father who opposed his father's hobby because that thing made his father did not care about him. That hobby also made his father always heed himself and took care of his coins collection.

One day, when John was surfing on the beach, he met with the girl namely Savannah Lynn Curtis. At that time, Savannah looks panicked because her bag fell down into the sea. In that condition, John immediately dived and helped Savannah to find her bag. Savannah was happy because John had found her bag. Savannah thanked to John Tyree because he had been found Savannah's bag that fell in the sea. . However, that accident brought them being together and become a couple. Both of them spent their holidays at Wilmington and did happy things together. Both of them became closer and knew each other.

The holidays have been over. Both John and Savannah gain the long distance relationship because both of them have their own dream. John has to work as an army and Savannah should continue her study in the university. The distance between both of them didn't make both of them lose communication but they always communicated through the letter and email. Both of them made letters and replayed every letter that they sent. Both John and Savannah wrote the letter and told everything that they had been spent.

John Tyree and Savannah love story did not end with a happy ending because there was an unexpected incident happens. Savannah should marry with another man which is her friends, Tim. She was forced to married with Tim because he was ill and Savannah was pity to Tim's brother who got autistic syndrome. Savannah took care of Tim's brother and ended her relationship with John Tyree. Savannah still loved with John and both of them loved each other, but the condition of her friends made Savannah decided to leave John and married with her friend, Tim.

After Mr. Tyree passed away, John Tyree leaved Wilmington and went to Lenoir in order to visit Savannah. Both of them meet again in Savannah's house at Lenoir. Savannah told about the reason ended their relationship and married to Tim. Additionally; Savannah also invited John Tyree to meet with her husband in the hospital because got the melanoma disease. Savannah and Tim explained about the melanoma disease that Tim suffered and every treatment that he has been passed. For this condition, John Tyree decided to sell all of his father's coin collection in order to help Tim treatment. John Tyree chose to sell his father coin collection because he wanted Tim recovered and happy in life with Savannah. John Tyree will do everything to make Savannah happy even though the pain that he was felt. After helping Tim's treatment by sold his father's coin collection, John Tyree leaved the Lenoir and lets Savannah and Tim happy. He never came back to meet with Savannah because he released that love may not always bring someone together.
