Grand Theory of Sequence and Segmentation (Bordwell & Thompson 2010)

Sequences segmentation hold an important role in identifying a character's characterization. Sequence is the stage of a story which separated inside a linked space and time which categorized into several scenes. Segmentation helps the researcher in identifying the specific scene that implies the characterization of the character.

Grand Theory of Character and Characterization (Koesonoebro 1989)

Character is identified as the persona that created by the author to take a role in the story. Character is not just a person. Animal, things and even a natural phenomenon could be a character. It could be identified as character as long as it act like human being.

Characterization or character revelation identified as how the character of the story formed and built. There are two ways of characterization namely direct and indirect characterization. Direct characterization shows the trait of the character directly by the author's description or a character. On the other hand, indirect characterization shows the characterization through speech and dialogue in an implicit way which enable the reader to guess the trait of that specific character.

Grand Theory of Character Education Value: 5 Core Value from Ministry of Education and Culture 2017

In this research, the researcher used 5 Core Values of Character Education from Ministry of Education and Culture 2017. The five core values that purposed by the government are religious, nationalist, independent, mutual cooperative, and integrity. Therefore, each of those values consist of several sub values namely:

1) Religious

Ministry of education and culture (2017) Concern that religious is an important character values that needed by the students. Religious reflect the belief and faithfulness to the god through the interaction between individuals in daily life. The sub values are love peace, tolerance, sincerely, not imposing own will, and love the environment. Ministry of Education and Culture (2010) stated that peace-loving as a character that reflect a peaceful environment condition around the students. Tolerance is a character that require the students respect and appreciate the difference of the others and able to live among those differences (Ministry of Education and Culture, 2010). Sincerely is a character which shows what the students really think or feel (Graham, 2014). Not imposing own will is a character that think and act by considering other's feeling rather than own self (JIST, 2006). Love the environment defied as willing to maintain and protect the environment (Ministry of Education and Culture, 2010).

2) Nationalism

Nationalism refers to the way of thinking and action which reflect several attitude such as loyal, caring, and respect toward own language, environment, culture, social, economy and political. Nationalism also emphasize in prioritize the needs of peoples than own self. The sub value are Excellent, Loving one's own native land, Obeying the law, and Discipline. Excellence is refers to the quality of an individual which surpass the ordinary measure (Ericsson, 1996). Loving one's own native land refers to the felling of love, proud, loyal, and appreciate toward the culture, language, and other aspect of own native land (Ministry of Education and Culture 2010). Obeying the law means being a good citizen and obeying the rules that set by the society (JIST, 2006). Ministry of education and culture (2010) explain that discipline is a consistent behavior of any available laws in life.

3) Integrity

Integrity refers to the value that require the students to be a reliable person in speech and action, have a good moral, and have a commitment and obey the humanity value that available in the society. By showing their integrity, the students are able to be a trustworthy person and have a good decision-making skill (Ministry of education and culture 2017). The sub values of Integrity are Cooperative, Democratic, Caring, and Voluntary. Cooperative is a character which concern on working together with other in order to accomplish a certain goal (JIST, 2006). Democratic can be described as an attitude and a way of thinking that consider the others right and opinion (Ministry of education and culture 2010). Caring is a character reflect a willing to help toward the people who in needs (Ministry of education and culture 2017).

4) Independent

Independent is a character which emphasizing the students to not rely too much from other and put much effort to achieve their own dream (Ministry of education and culture 2017). The students are required to have a good competition skills in order to improve itself, professional and creative. The sub values of Independent are Honesty, Loyal, Commitment in moral, Fair, and Responsible. Honesty refers to the character that unite knowledge, speech and action that make the students think, speak, and act according to what they witness which turned them into a trustable person opinion (Ministry of education and culture 2010). Loyal is a character which shows a strong determination on a relation with others (Rantan Sari et al., 2016). According to JIST (2006) Fair refers to an action that considering other's believe and put aside own thought. Responsible is a character that reflected by completing any rights and needs of own self and other aspect of life.

5) Mutual cooperation

Cooperation require the students to socialize and work with other. Humans as a social being need to cooperate with other in order to survive in the society. Appendix 3. Synopsis of Suzanne Collins' The Hunger Games (2008)

Katniss was a 16 years old girl who live in district 12, one of 12 districts that exist in Panem, a country that exist in the North America. Katniss mostly spent her life to hunt in the woods with her best friend, Gale in order to feed her family due to the absence of her father who died because of a mine explosion when Katniss was 11 years old. Katniss lived with her mother and her little sister, Prim. Every year, the capital of Panem, Capitol obligated every district to send female children and male children to participate in an annual dead or alive survival game where all of the tributes will be placed in an arena and kill each other until one tribute remain which called as Hunger Game. The sole purpose of the Hunger Games was to maintain the power of the Capitol that made the twelve districts understood how powerless they were against the Capitol which reduced the chance of rebellion toward the capitol. In order to make the Capitol's power even stronger, the Hunger Games was broadcasted in the television to make the entire districts feared of the Capitol.

In this 74th Hunger Games, the people of district 12 gathered at the town square to choose the male and female tribute for the hunger games which also called as the reaping day. All the child that qualified as a tribute lined in the square waiting for the selection. The reaping began with a speech from Mayor Undersee about the history of Panem and the Hunger Games. Unfortunately, Prim was chosen as the female tribute even though her chance to be a tribute was small. The unexpected condition encourage Katniss to volunteer herself as the replacement of her sister as the female tribute for the Hunger Games. Meanwhile, the one who chosen as the male tribute was Peeta Melark, son of a baker who actually had a romantic feeling toward Katniss.

The reaping day was ended by farewell meeting with the family of the tributes in the justice building before they left the district to the Capitol. On the way to the Capitol by using train, both Katniss and Peeta met Effie Trinket and Haymitch abbernathy who were their mentor and coach. They also met Cinna and Portia who were their stylish. Before the tributes of Hunger Games began the battle in the arena, they were obligated to join several activites such as training session, scoring session, interview session, and tribute introduction parade. During those activity, Katniss was gained a tittle as a girl of fire by the audience which made her had many sponsors. In order to make even more sponsors to support, Katniss and Peeta agreed to accept Haymitch's proposal to do a fake love act between Katniss and Peeta.

The Hunger Games started when the game maker announced that the 74th Hunger Game was began. Katniss and Peeta managed to survive from the chaos that happened at the beginning of the game where all of the tributes fought in order to secure the bag of survival equipment even though they were in a different location. During the game, Katniss managed to escape to a safer place and concealed herself on a tree in order to avoid the career tributes. When Katniss tried to sleep, she heard the conversation of the career tributes with Peeta which indicated that Peeta formed an alliance with the career tributes. One moment during the game, Katniss was chased by the career tributes and she decided to climb a tree to avoid them. While the career tributes were sleeping under the tree, Katniss used her idea to make a nest of Tracker Jacker fell to the career tributes bellow even though Katniss also got stung by the Tracker Jackers that venomous. Katniss was paralyzed and fainted because of the venom after she took the bow and arrow from Glimmer, one of the death career tribute. During her unconsciousness, Katniss was nursed by Rue and they decided to form an alliance and destroy the food supplies of the career tributes. During the execution day of the plan, Katniss asked Rue to lure out the career tributes that patrolling around the supplies while Katniss shot her arrow and destroy the food supplies by triggering the land mines. Unfortunately their alliance ended because Rue was killed by one of the career tributes. Katniss sang Rue a song and covered her wound and body with flower until the hovercraft lifted her body as her last honor to Rue.

A sudden announcement was emerged where two tributes from the same district could win the game together which made Katniss decided to find Peeta. Katniss managed to find wounded Peeta that camouflage with mud and trees by the river bank. Katniss took Peeta to a safer place and nursed her wound. During the process of healing Peeta's wound, they got many sponsors that sent them many useful things and foods because of their lovers act. Katniss and Peeta managed to survive until they were the only remaining tributes. Suddenly, Caesar, the game maker announced the revoke of the rule where now only one tribute that allowed to be the winner of the Hunger Games. Because both of them could not kill each other, they decided to commit suicide to make the Capitol embarrassed because there will be no winner for the 74th Hunger Games. Right after they put the poisonous berry in their mouth, Caesar suddenly announced that both of them became the winner of the 74th Hunger Games.

Katniss and Peeta were returned to the Capitol and reunited with their team. During the victor ceremony, Katniss realized that their action when they tried to commit suicide back in the game was considered as an action of rebellion which made Katniss unsecured about her title as a victor. When Katniss and Peeta were inside the train that took them back to district 12, Peeta talked about Katniss lover act toward him back during the game. Peeta disappointed because he realized that Katniss action was just for the purpose of the game and she wasn't serious about that. However, Katniss also unsure about her action and her feeling toward Peeta back in the game. Finally, both of them decided to hold hands and return to district 12.
