APPENDICES

Appendix 1. Synopsis of Crazy Rich Asians (2013)

The story begins with an overview of the Nicholas Young family. In the prologue Nicholas Young and his family including his mother, his cousins, and his aunties encountered racial discrimination by the Calthorpe's hotel manager in London. His family was incredibly rich that they bought the hotel as the sweet revenge in responding to the discrimination that was addressed to them. Move to the present time in New York as he was an adult when Nicholas Young asked his girlfriend Rachel Chu to spend the holiday in Singapore where she can meet with Nicholas Young's family and attended Nicholas Young's best friend Colin Khoo's wedding. Their plan spread instantly to Nicholas Young's mother Eleanor Young in Singapore during Bible study in Carol Tai's house which resulted in Eleanor's restlessness. Rachel Chu's mother Kerry Chu tried to prepare Rachel before they went to Singapore. She warned Rachel of how conservative Chinese Singaporean among all Chinese. Rachel Chu's mind full of consideration for Nicholas Young was very silent about his family. The story continues with details about Nicholas Young's cousin Astrid Leong in France and Edison Cheng in Hong Kong. Back to Singapore, Eleanor Young found that the news was disturbing that everyone one the Bible study talked about it. Eleanor Young and his circle were very strict about who would entering their family or be among their crazy rich circle.

Rachel got shocked when she directed to the first-class Singapore airlines, it contradicts with their simple lifestyle in New York. This part of the story is the first time Nicholas Young began to reveal that he was from a rich family. In another place, Astrid Leong had formal dinner with her family while she was burdened
