QUESTIONNAIRE

To measure the students' perception, the questionnaire will use grand theory by Robbin and Judge (2013) using 3 factors that influence students' perception, which are perceiver, target and situation. Moreover, the questionnaire used is adapted from the model suggested by Eva & Adnyani (2020), Bicen & Kocakoyun (2018), Buzzetto-more (2008), and Rosida (2018). The blueprint of questionnaire can be seen Table 2:

Blueprint of Questionnaire

| No. | Dimension | | Indicator | Statement |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1. | Perceiver: an individual who perceive or gives their understanding point of view to the particular thing. | 1. | Attitude: The way the perceiver feels and reflects on a certain thing which is expressed through pleasant and unpleasant statements. There are three parts of attitude, namely | 1. I can easily to learn online using Google Classroom than other platforms (attitude: cognitive)  2. I consider that Google Classroom is useful in facilitating the online learning process. |

| | | | cognitive (knowledge about the use of Google Classroom), affective (feelings about the influence of using Google Classroom), and behavior (reasons for using Google Classroom in learning). | (attitude: affective) 3. I feel some difficulties when using Google Classroom to facilitate Online learning (attitude: behavior) |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| | | 2 | Motive: The intention of a perceiver to take action for the purpose of achieving something based on the needs and values of the perceiver. In this case, the statement will be focused on investigating students' intentions in using Google Classroom. | 4. I used Google classroom to help me understand about the material that given by teacher |
| | | 3 | Interest: Perceiver's internal urge to desire to know something or object of perception. In this case, the statement will focus on how EFL students are interested in using the Google classroom to facilitate learning English. | 5. I am not interested in using Google Classroom to facilitate online learning during COVID-19 |
| | | 4 | Experience: the way humans learn through events that have occurred and through 3 stages, namely doing, | 6. Using Google Classroom helped me to do assignment on time (doing) 7. It is difficult for me to use Google Classroom |

| | | | |

| | | seeing, and feeling something. Furthermore, the statement will focus more on the experience of EFL students when they use Google Classroom to facilitate online learning. | in learning (feeling)  8. The features of Google Classroom are easy to use (seeing) |
| | | 5 Hope: a perceiver's belief about something that is expected to happen in the future. This statement will focus on observers' beliefs when using Google Classroom to facilitate online learning | 9. Through Google Classroom, the process of receiving announcement, receiving learning materials, doing assignment and sending assignment submission are easier. |
| 2. | Target can be defined as certain objects or things that are being or will be interpreted. There are 7 factors that influence individual perceptions, when viewed from the target. | 6. Novelty: Something original, new, and unusual that experienced by perceivers when they interpret something. In this research, it will investigate the perception of EFL students about something new that they were experienced when using Google Classroom to facilitate online learning during COVID-19. | 10. I found that features in Google Classroom such as assignment, discussion board and comment as something new in the learning process. |
| | | 7. Motion: activities that give a certain action to move a certain object. In this case the google | 11. I found the use of Google Classroom was demotivating in learning online |

| | | classroom movement contributes to individual perceptions of the target perception. | |
| | | 8. Sound: something that is conveyed to someone's ear and can be heard as well. In this study, sound was not used in the blueprint because Google Classroom did not make a sound | |
| | | 9. Size: the proportion of target perceptions. This study did not use size to investigate students' perceptions. | |
| | | 10. Background: The situation that underlies and supports certain things is happening right now. In this case it will be investigated the background why students use Google Classroom in facilitating online learning. | 12. The score and feedback for my assignment are quickly done by my teacher using the features in Google Classroom. |
| | | 11. Proximity: how close the target perception is to the individual or recipient. In this study, the closeness of students using Google Classroom and the relationship between Google Classroom and observers will be | 13. | | | 12. Similarity: something that is similar, but actually has several components that may be different. In this case, the researcher will investigate EFL students' perceptions of the use of Google's classroom in facilitating online or other learning | 13. Google Classroom and Schoology have several similarities as LMS, however Google Classroom has more secured storage system since it uses Google Drive and Gmail. |
| 3. | Situation means a condition or circumstances that supports the individual to perceive something. In this case the situation is divided into three, namely time, work setting, and social setting | 13. Time: a range of time allocations when the perceivers gives certain understanding to the target perception. Therefore, in this study the researchers focused on when and for how long the safeguards used Google Classroom to facilitate online learning. | 14. It did not take long for me to learn the features of Google Classroom.  15. I regularly use Google Classroom to assist the learning process |
| | | 14. Work setting: an environment that influences the temperature of an individual to do something. This study will focus on investigating whether the school environment has a significant influence on EFL students' perceptions of the use of Google Classroom in facilitating online | 16. Google Classroom expands the opportunity to conduct online discussions easily and quickly |

|---|---|---|---|
| | | 15. Social setting: the atmosphere around which influences individuals to take action on something | 17. My teacher is enthusiastic to use Google classroom for our online learning because it is easy to use. |
