ABSTRACT

This study aimed at describing the types of prefixes, infixes, and suffixes of Pegayaman dialect undergoing derivational and inflectional processes. This study is a descriptive qualitative research. Three informants were chosen based on the criteria of informant qualification (Samarin, 1967). There were three techniques of data analysis, that is, data reduction, data display, and conclusion drawing/verification. The results of the study show that there are three prefixes of Pegayaman dialect, prefix { $\Lambda$ -}, {mə-}, and {n-}. There is no infix in Pegayaman dialect. Moreover, there are six suffixes of Pegayaman dialect, suffix {-an}, {- $\Lambda$ j}, {-ə}, {-in}, {-n}, and {-nē}. Prefixes and suffixes of Pegayaman dialect belonging to derivational process, are prefix {mə-}, {n-}, and suffix {-an} and {-in}. Prefixes and suffixes of Pegayaman dialect belonging to inflectional process, are prefix { $\Lambda$ -}, {mə-}, {n-}, and suffix {-an}, {- $\Lambda$ j}, {-ə}, {-in}, {-n}, and {-ne}.
